CLASSICAL RECORDING LABEL

CFOS

A Label by Musicians, for Musicians

100% NON-EXCLUSIVE | FULL ARTISTIC FREEDOM | ARTIST ROYALTIES RETAINED | WORLDWIDE DISTRIBUTION

OWNERSHIP, FREEDOM & ARTIST ROYALTIES

Built by musicians.
Designed for musicians.

CFOS is a forward-thinking classical music label founded by musicians who understand the artistic journey firsthand. We offer 100% non-exclusive agreements — your repertoire, your rights, your future.

Unlike many traditional recording contracts, CFOS never restricts your artistic freedom. Should you sign with another label in the future, you remain entirely free to record and release new versions of the same repertoire. Many labels impose restrictions on re-recording works for extended periods; we believe artists should retain full control over their creative development.

As musicians ourselves, we believe a label should support artistic growth rather than limit it.

ON ROYALTIES & TRANSPARENCY

One of the questions we encountered when entering the recording industry was the issue of artist royalties and ownership. In many traditional models, labels retain full digital ownership of recordings, while royalty structures often lack transparency. Royalty payments are typically only distributed once a minimum payout threshold of €100 has been reached, which requires a minimum of 25,000 consistent monthly streams. This has led to numerous artists and their teams "buying" streams and falling for predatory "promotional" models that cost more than the actual revenue.

CFOS takes a different approach.

Our goal is to create a more artist-friendly and transparent ecosystem. Once you become a CFOS Artist, you are welcome to introduce fellow musicians whose work aligns with our artistic vision. Should we decide to offer them a recording project after reviewing their work, and they subsequently release an album through CFOS, we will share 20% of the album production fee with you (€30 under our current €150 album pricing model).

This referral reward is entirely separate from your streaming revenue.

Furthermore, CFOS Artists retain 100% of their streaming royalties, once monthly streaming activity consistently exceeds the standard payout thresholds established by digital distribution platforms.

At CFOS, we believe artists should benefit directly from the success of their work and the strength of their professional network.

THE CFOS ARTIST ADVANTAGE

Your network. Your reward.

Referral rewards are paid on top of your streaming royalties — not instead of them. Both benefits run in parallel.
